six natives out, 2 at each 2 women in one. Came up to 1500 feet, then down again. Along good stream - probably the river. New termatopos up & along crest. Beautiful beaches - few bracken trees & some by the river.

More streams. One delicious cool. Same squashes, sugar berrate of soda. Good.

down trails, mostly 3 or 4 ft. from the ground.
Several
deserted villages. One, near upland two patch of several acres had purple in it.
The chief, ~~Tao-so~~ Samu shell money below back & a feathered arrow cap on head.

To Yonpanda. Big
spring from high rock small cascades. Some bamboo & other plants
at the spring; stream
very gently in water.

W. began to go down to see us. Several to my place;
some naked; others, more modest, with leaves or some with calico.
Below for paper eagerly sized.
Slight rain.
W. very steep hill, a turn to left. Paper clear & purple. Cliffs

W. very steep & bent
stream, with in dis trict each
ten feet through granite boulders
below. Boys plunged up another high hill to a cleared place and had a dance; up
still higher. Summer!
but the steep was too hot, and we were very thirsty, so did not know where we were.

Passed another lot of bushmen; armed with axes.
clam - very common
among them.

Ground became swampy,
with not a trip one.
At last could see the sea,
less than a half mile away; quick walk with slightly down-grade, then flat. Road very good. This village to reach.
But on its way I to meet us a food looked mighty good.
